MAKE-A-WISH FOUNDATION® ANNOUNCES FORMATION OF EVANSVILLE REGIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL

(INDIANAPOLIS, IN)—The Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Greater Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, Indiana Region, announced the formation of the Evansville Regional Advisory Council.

The Evansville Regional Advisory Council was formed by a committed group of dedicated volunteers to advance the mission of the Make-A-Wish Foundation. “I am so excited to collaborate with Evansville’s business and community leaders to grant the wishes and enrich the lives of children battling life-threatening medical conditions,” remarked Executive Director Juli Miller.

The Advisory Council will act as a liaison between the Indianapolis-based regional office and southern Indiana. With a number of combine years experience, the eight advisory board members in Evansville will build a foundation to implement a stronger presence of Make-A-Wish in southern Indiana.

“This is the first council of its kind for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Greater Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana. I hope that the Council will enable us to better serve Vanderburgh and the surrounding counties by raising funds and awareness,” commented Miller.
