Cleveland Child Ready to Enjoy Action-Packed Wish By Attending 25th Anniversary of WrestleMania® in Houston
*WWE®, Make-A-Wish Foundation® Celebrating Wish Milestone

(CLEVELAND, OH)—Eighteen-year-old Joshua will be whisked off to Houston, Texas to attend one of sports entertainment's biggest events, the 25th Anniversary of WrestleMania, thanks to the Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Greater Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, Northeast Ohio Region and World Wrestling Entertainment®.

Joshua, who is battling Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, will enjoy a full weekend of wish activities in Houston with his family, capped by attending the 25th Anniversary of WrestleMania this Sunday, April 5, at Reliant Stadium. Joshua is one of more than 40 wish kids whose wishes to attend the 25th Anniversary are being granted by WWE and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Elyria native Joshua, who enjoys playing computer games, cheering on the Cleveland Browns and watching Pirates of the Caribbean, has been a WWE fan for years. "While he faces daily challenges living with muscular dystrophy, Josh has the same interests as most teenage boys," remarked Executive Director Kelly Kleinschmidt.

Wish activities hosted by WWE and its Superstars and Divas include a special tour of the Houston Zoo and private autograph session on Friday, April 3; a private party at Reliant Stadium on Saturday, April 4; and the opportunity to attend a special session of WWE's WrestleMania Axxess and the 25th Anniversary of WrestleMania on Sunday, April 5.

Joshua will be inducted into the WWE/Make-A-Wish® Circle of Champions at the private party, receiving a commemorative certificate and T-shirt. He and the rest of the wish kids also will be on hand when the Make-A-Wish Foundation of America announces WWE Superstar John Cena's new role with the world's largest wish-granting organization.

-More-

“It’s always fulfilling to see us put smiles on the faces of these Make-A-Wish children as we make their wishes to be part of our biggest event of the year, WrestleMania, come true,” said Sue Aitchison, WWE’s Director, Community Relations.

“It will be particularly memorable this year as we celebrate 25 years of working with the Make-A-Wish Foundation to grant the wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions.”

For 25 years, WWE has been one of the Make-A-Wish Foundation’s most dedicated wish granters, fulfilling hundreds of children’s wishes to meet its Superstars and Divas and attend major events such as WrestleMania. World Wrestling Entertainment Inc. has also made a multi-year commitment to support the Make-A-Wish Foundation and its wish-granting activities.

“Josh is thrilled about attending the 25th Anniversary of Wrestlemania,” said Kleinschmidt. “WWE has helped us grant the wishes of so many courageous kids, and each one comes back delighted by the experience. We’re fortunate to have a dedicated wish-granting partner like WWE to help us fulfill our life-affirming mission.”
